Subject: Fiscal Year 2025 Battle Assembly Training Schedule

4. NOTE TO EMPLOYER: 38 U.S.C Sec 2024 provides a statutory leave of absences and reemployment right for persons employed or any Government agency who holds positions other than temporary and request leave to perform military training. If you desire information concerning the eligibility of the rights to be accorded under the reemployment statutes you may contact the Office of Veterans Reemployment Rights, U.S Department of Labor and Washington D.C. 20210

5. Under Title 20 Chapter IX Part 1002 - Regulations Under USERRA, Subpart C, §1002.74 "At a minimum, an employee must have enough time after leaving the employment position to travel safely to the uniformed service site and arrive fit to perform the service. Depending on the specific circumstances, including the duration of service, the amount of notice received, and the location of the service, additional time to rest, or to arrange affairs and report to duty, may be necessitated by reason of service in the uniformed services". Soldiers should not work schedules prior to battle assembly where ample amount of rest time isn't permitted. For further clarification please visit <https://www.esgr.mil/USERRA/USERRA-for-Employer>
