

ARMY NATIONAL GUARD / ARMY RESERVE IADT SOLDIER OUT-BRIEF

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

1. Congratulations to our Distinguished Honor Graduates, Honor Graduates, Iron Soldiers
2. Line of Duty (LOD). An LOD is used to determine eligibility of benefits and entitlements associated with an injury, illness, or disease that the Soldier claims was incurred in a qualified duty status, AND is a direct result of, or related to performing their military duties.
 - An injury/illness sustained while in BCT/AIT training that will require care past your orders end date requires an LOD
 - Superficial lacerations, abrasions, mild heat injuries, colds, flu, sore throat, pain, headaches, bumps and bruises, sprains and strains, COVID-19, nausea, sore muscles, backache, ingrown hair, rash, poison ivy, gas, and constipation, are NOT conditions with lasting significance and does not warrant an LOD
 - You MUST have a diagnosis, not just a chief complaint like "pain", and a prognosis to initiate the LOD
3. Army Emergency Relief Loan, unpaid balances will be recouped from Drill Pay until loan is paid in full.
4. Upon return to the Recruit Sustainment Program (RSP) or assigned Troop Program Unit (TPU), you MUST complete the following:
 - Call and/or report to your RSP/Unit within 72 hours, or the first duty day (if you arrive on a holiday or holiday weekend)
 - Update your RSP/Unit with your current address and telephone number
 - Obtain a copy of the Drill Schedule or Battle Assembly (BTA) Training Calendar when you report to your RSP/Unit
 - Soldiers must request their Notice of Basic Eligibility (NOBE) to receive the GI Bill

IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS YOU WILL SAFEGUARD AND HAND CARRY TO YOUR RSP/UNIT:

- Military Personnel Records Jacket (MPRJ), Medical, Dental, Training Files (Basic Training/AIT) and all Diplomas and Certificates. These records are not yours, they belong to the RSP/Unit, and are required to process your GI Bill, Enlistment Bonus, etc.
 - DD Form 214 (Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty)
 - DD Form 93 (Record of Emergency Data)
 - SGLV-8286 (Service Member's Group Life Insurance)
 - Individual Training Records (ITR) (Basic Training and AIT)
 - DA Form 4187 (Personnel Action Form)
5. You MUST complete a Travel Voucher (DA Form 1351-2) upon reporting to your RSP/Unit. The Army is responsible for getting you to and from your home. Save your receipts for reimbursement.
 6. Security Clearance – Your MOS puts you in a position of special trust and responsibility. Patterns of misconduct, in/out of uniform have the potential to negatively impact your ability to maintain your clearance, which is mandatory to retain your MOS.

7. Unsatisfactory Participation “U” – Any unexcused absence from a scheduled drill/battle assembly not approved in advance by your unit Commander; is considered unsatisfactory participation (1 Day = 2 Unsats). Additionally, Soldiers out of uniform and/or arriving with relaxed grooming standards not in line with guidance provided in AR 670-1 or conduct unbecoming a member of the military will be sent home and receive a “U”. Nine “U” s within a Fiscal Year (FY) will result in the termination of enlistment in the Army Reserve or Army National Guard.
